BLACK HISTORY MONTH

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

The "Athenium Project" and the Bayonne Public Library continues to commemorate Black History Month 2019 with the Audible dot com piece "The Radical King": essays written by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and narrated by a host of oratory celebrity talents including LeVar Burton , Gabourey Sidibe , Cornel West , Mike Colter , Danny Glover , Wanda Sykes , Leslie Odom Jr. , and Michael K. Williams. These narrated essays are unlike other well know and previously published content by Dr. King and creates a portrait of him outside of the non-violent, conventionalist we all have come know and understand. Come to the Bayonne Public Library, listen and relearn what you thought you knew about one of the most profound and prolific leaders of the modern world.

Event Dates 02/11-15/2019

All Audible content will be streaming live in the lobby of the Bayonne Public Library on the above noted dates
