

Registered Environmental Health Specialist - Bayonne, NJ

The City of Bayonne is accepting applications for full-time Registered Environmental Health Specialists (REHS).

Under the direction of the Health Officer, responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Conducting sanitary inspections for compliance with applicable public and environmental health regulations
- Investigating nuisance complaints and violations of public health laws and ordinances
- Performing educational outreach activities
- Maintaining accurate paper and electronic records of investigations and inspections
- Issues violation notices and provides testimony in Court when required.
- Carrying out other duties or special projects as required or assigned

This position may require occasional evening and/or weekend work.

Minimum Job Requirements:

- Must possess an active Registered Environmental Health Specialist License issued by the NJ Department of Health
- Must hold a valid New Jersey driver's license
- Minimum of 1–3 years of relevant experience preferred
- Experience with SDL

Starting salary is $71,000.

Interested candidates should contact Kristen Bessinger for an application:

Kbessinger@baynj.org | 201-858-6063